

European Association
for the Study of Diabetes

EASD Postgraduate Course on Diabetes and Technology.
Athens, Greece – September 20 – 22, 2018

Thursday September 20th

12:00 - 13:00 Registration

13:00 - 13:15 Welcome and opening

Chairmen: G Dimitriadis, N.Lalic

13:15 - 13:45 Beyond HbA1c: new metrics for glucose control – Asimina Mitrakou (Greece)

13:45 - 14:15 Use of pumps /closed loop in the hospital (title to be finalized) — Lalantha Leelarathna (UK)

14:15 - 14:45 Insulin Pumps in type 2 diabetes: similarities and specificities – Nebojsa Lalic (Serbia)

14:45 - 15:15 Coffee break

15:15 – 18:00 Workshops (Each workshop lasts 75 minutes and is repeated once after a 15 minute break)

Workshop 1 Insulin Pumps: hands on learning – Andriani Vazaiou (Greece), Aggeliki Koutzabassi (Greece)

Workshop 2 Diabetes and the foot – Oliver Shroeer (Germany), N.Papanas (Greece)

Workshop 3 Technology for eye complications – Georgios Giagkou (Greece) + TBA (Greece)

Friday September 21st

Chairmen: N.Tentolouris, L.Leelarantha

09:00 - 09:30 Introducing new technologies to 'old' diabetologists – challenges and opportunities Leszek Czupryniak (Poland)

09:30 - 10:00 Prediabetes, diabetes and obesity: Is bariatric surgery the miracle cure? - Dimitri Pournaras (UK)

10:30 - 11:00 How accurate are glucose sensors, is the jury is still out? Lalantha Leelarathna (UK)

Chairmen: A.Mittrakou, P.Choudhary

11:00 – 11:30 Coffee Break

11:30 – 12:00 New technologies for diabetes and cardiovascular complications – Skevos Sideris (Greece)

12:30 – 13:00 Closed-loop for type 1 diabetes – Pratik Choudhary (UK)

13:00 – 13:30 How will closed loop change our work? – Howard Wolpert (USA)

13:30 – 14:00 The logic behind the decision support system of the artificial pancreas (for medical teams treating patients with type 1 diabetes) – Revital Nimri (Israel)

14:00 – 15:00 Lunch

15:00 – 18:15 Workshops (Each workshop lasts 90 minutes and is repeated once after a 15 minute break)

Workshop 4 How to train seasoned diabetologists in pump therapy – Leszek Czupryniak (Poland), Elektra Szymanska-Garbacz (Poland)

Workshop 5 CareLink® software for diabetes management – Pratik Choudhary (UK), P. Thomakos (Greece)

Workshop 6 Technology and pregnancy – Lene Ringholm (Denmark) , V. Lambadiari (Greece)

Saturday September 22nd

Chairmen: T. Didagelos, L Czupryniak

08:45 - 09: 30 Management of problematic hypos – Pratik Choudhary (UK)

09:30 – 10:00 Objective monitoring of the Obesogenic Behaviour and the role in the local environment Anastasios Delopoulos (Greece)

10:00 – 10:30 Open ACS – Tim Street (UK)

10:30 – 10:45 Short Coffee Break

10:45 – 13:15 Workshops (Each workshop lasts 75 minutes and is repeated once after a 15 minute break)

Workshop 7 Libre –Christoph de block (Belgium), Asimina Mitrakou (Greece)

Workshop 8 From High altitude to high-impact, the use of technology for active patients.-Tomasz Kupla (Poland) A Vazaiou (Greece)

Workshop 9 Smartphone applications – Evgenya Patrakeeva (Russia) & Tamuna Zerekidze (Georgia), K. Makrilakis (Greece)

Prof. Asimina Mitrakou

On behalf of
The EASD Postgraduate Education Committee

President:

Juleen Zierath, Sweden

Managing Director:

Monika Grüsser, Germany

Headquarters:

Rheindorfer Weg 3
40591 Düsseldorf
Germany

EU Liaison Office:

Rue de la Science 14b
Brussels 1040
Belgium